

Press Release

Chandigarh, December 29:- Getting its act together, state-owned Hotel Mountview, the only five-star hotel in Chandigarh, Panchkula and Mohali, has lined up plans for a gala New Year-eve show to draw customers to the dining table, that too, at reasonably affordable cost. The hotel management has sought to mingle festivity with feasting in the temptingly magnificent December 31 evening celebration plans, drawn up with an eye on making it the new Year-eve a memorable event for those trooping in.

Disclosing this here today, Mr. R.P. Singhla, General Manager, Hotel Mount View, said, "There will be a live band in attendance, DJ and dance troupe in rustle, multi-cuisine restaurant and magic wok to entertain the guests with hip-hop and saba performance. All this would be enough to impel one to tap the dance floor and let one's hair loose".

The hotel management has decided to offer rustles for a couple at Rs 3,500; magic wok at Rs 4,000 and vintage bar for Rs 5,000 respectively. "A guest accompanying the couple shall have to pay only Rs 1,800; Rs 2,000 and Rs 2,500 for rustle, magic wok and vintage bar," Mr. Singhla added.

Vintage well-stocked bar will take the evening to new high. Tickling visitors' taste buds, the CITCO-run hotel has come out with authentic Indian Mughlai and Chinese snacks for vegetarian and non-vegetarians. For the first time, arrangements have been made for display of the lavish food items followed by a tantalisingly rich range of desserts.

Surprise welcome drinks would await one in the shape of cocktails and mocktails. Hotel Mountview has made all efforts to make the evening unforgettable for the times to come. The taste of the evening shall linger and last until the next New Year-eve, Mr. Singla asserted.
